TOWN OF COTTAGE GROVE - CODE OF ORDINANCES

01.03 STANDING COMMITTEES

(1) DESIGNATION

- (a) The town chair, with the approval of the town board, shall designate appropriate committees to provide input to the board, and to assist in the administration of town affairs.
- (b) The town chair shall designate the committees that will act during their term of office, within 30 days from the date the chair takes office; with the exception of any committee whose term of service is otherwise specified under state statute, or town ordinance.
- (c) The committee designation may be such that: it is a standing committee which is continuing in nature; or that it is a limited term committee, which has been developed to address a specific issue, and has a specified term of service. Joint committees, established between the town and village of Cottage Grove, may also be designated as either standing, or limited term committees.

(2) APPOINTMENT AND TERM OF SERVICE

- (a) The town chair shall solicit names of electors of the town who wish to serve on a town committee. Any elector of the town shall be eligible for appointment to a committee; subject to ratification by the town board.
- (b) The name of any person recommended for appointment to a committee shall be presented to the town board for their consideration at the first scheduled meeting in May, by the town chair.
- (c) The town board shall consider the nominations for appointment to a town committee, and shall vote to ratify these appointments at the second scheduled board meeting in May. A majority vote of the board members present, shall be considered approval of the nominee.
- (d) The length of the term of office of each committee shall be two years from the date of appointment; with the exception of any committee which has a member's term of office otherwise specified by state statute, or town ordinance.
- (e) In the event a vacancy occurs on any town committee, prior to the end of the term of office specified in (d), the town chair shall nominate a replacement; and the town board shall act on this nomination at the next scheduled board meeting, following the date the vacancy occurs.

(3) DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- (a) The members of each committee designated under 01.03(1)(a), shall elect a committee secretary on an annual basis at the first scheduled meeting that follows the appointment of new members to the committee.
- (b) The designated committee secretary shall keep a full and accurate record of all proceedings of the committee and shall provide the town clerk with a written record of these proceedings, on or before the date of the town board meeting where action would be taken on any recommendations made by the committee.

(4) EFFECTIVE DATE

- (a) The structure of the standing committees was initially approved in May 1993.
- (b) This section shall take effect upon passage and publication.

TOWN OF COTTAGE GROVE - CODE OF ORDINANCES

01.07 DESTRUCTION OF PUBLIC RECORDS

(1) AUTHORITY.

This destruction of public records ordinance is enacted pursuant to the authority vested in the Town by §§ 60.83 and 19.21(4) Wis. Stat.

(2) RETENTION PERIOD.

The Town has adopted the General Records Schedule for Wisconsin Municipal and Related Records as approved by the Wisconsin Public Records Board. All public records must be retained by the Town for a minimum of seven (7) years unless:

- (a) a shorter retention period has been fixed by the State of Wisconsin Public Records Board under § 16.61(3)(e) Wis. Stat.; or
- (b) a shorter retention period has been fixed by statute; or
- (c) a longer retention period has been fixed by the Public Records Board or by statute, in which case such Public Records Board or statutory retention periods shall apply.

(3) DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS.

Upon expiration of the required retention period and upon completion of any required audit by the Bureau of Municipal Audit or by a Wisconsin certified public accountant, Town officers may destroy public records of which they are legal custodians subject to the provisions of this ordinance.

(4) HISTORICAL RECORDS.

No public record may be destroyed by the Town unless the Town has given the State Historical Society of Wisconsin (SHSW) at least sixty (60) days written notice of the Town's intent to destroy the public record, or the SHSW has waived the notice requirement for such record. No public record requested by the SHSW may be destroyed until after any SHSW request for inspection has been granted.

(5) DESTRUCTION AFTER OPEN RECORDS REQUEST FOR INSPECTION.

If an open records request is made for inspection of a public record, no such record may be destroyed until after such request is granted or until 60 days after the open records request is denied. If an action is commenced under § 19.37, Wis. Stat. the requested record may not be destroyed until after a court order is issued authorizing such destruction and all appeals have been completed. § 19.35(5), Wis. Stat.

(6) DESTRUCTION PENDING LITIGATION.

No public record subject to pending litigation may be destroyed until the litigation is resolved.

(7) PRESERVATION OF RECORDS THROUGH MICROFILM OR OTHER ELECTRONIC MEANS.

Any custodian of records may keep and preserve public records by means of microfilm or another reproductive device, optical imaging or electronic formatting. Such records shall meet the standards for reproduction set forth in Wis. Stats. §§ 16.61(7) and 16.612, and shall be considered original records for all purposes.
